Sports and Leisure news November 2012

The object of the game is to score points by passing the disc to a player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc.

Townsend is a natural leader and was selected to play in goal. Townsend is a natural leader and was selected to play in goal. Townsend is a natural leader and was selected to play in goal. Townsend is a natural leader and was selected to play in goal.

Theultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc. The ultimate player in the opposing end zone, similar to an end zone in American football or the in-goal area in Rugby. Players may not run with the disc, and must keep a pivot while holding the disc.

More details and developments can be found on the Campus Activity Programme webpage.