The development of an Integrated handrail system as specified below provides an improvement on visibility and ensures safety of stairs by emitting light through LED strips in both vertical directions.

Sensors detect the movement.

The LED generates enough light to illuminate the stairs.

The rail was designed to be comfortable.

Safety on Staircase