

Department of Radiography DIAGNOSTIC BOOK LIST Recommended to Purchase - Sept 2019 cohort

Dear Student,

Purchasing books for your new course can be expensive. The staff at City, University of London have put together a list of core textbooks which will assist you in your first year studies.

DON'T DO WHAT SOME STUDENTS DO – BUY A TEXTBOOK JUST BEFORE THE EXAMS, AND THEN REGRET THAT THEY DID NOT BUY IT EARLIER IN THE PROGRAMME! THESE BOOKS WILL REALLY HELP YOU THROUGH YOUR COURSE!

1. Whitley S, Sloane C, Jefferson G, Holmes K, Anderson C, (2017) Clark's Pocket Handbook for Radiographers. 2nd edition. CRC Press.
2. Raby, N., Berman, L. and Morley, S. (2015) Accident and emergency radiology: a survival guide. 3rd edition. Edinburgh: Saunders Elsevier.
3. Gunn, C. (2018) Bones and joints: a guide for students. 7th edition. Edinburgh: Elsevier.
4. Ball J., Moore A.D., Turner S. (2008) Ball and Moore's Essential Physics for Radiographers. Wiley-Blackwell.
  - Available as an e-book through the City, University of London library

OR

5. Graham DT, Cloke P & Vosper M (2012) Principles and applications of radiological physics Churchill Livingstone.
6. Tortora, G. J. and Derrickson, B. (2014) Principles of anatomy and physiology. 14th edition. Hoboken: Wiley.
  - The Department of Radiography will purchase the online version of the Tortora and Derrickson (2014) books for you (called WileyPlus) as you will use the online version during the course. You may therefore wish to wait before purchasing this book until you have tried using the online version
7. A medical dictionary. (This does not need to be an expensive version, but it would be helpful to purchase one that included common abbreviations)
8. Aveyard H. (2019) Doing A Literature Review in Health and Social Care: A Practical Guide. 4th edition. Open University Press.
  - Available as an e-book through the City, University of London library
