Journalism Emerging Stories

November 7 2018

City, University of London

Department of Journalism

9:00 Registration

Oliver Thompson Lecture Theatre (OTLT)

9:30 Welcome speech by City, University of London President Sir Paul Curran

9:45-10:45 Plenary

Work culture in the news rooms, gender equality

Chair and introduction by Suzanne Franks Head of Department of Journalism at City, University of London.

Speaker: Dorothy Byrne Head of Channel 4 News and Current Affairs and Chair of Ethical Journalism Network.

10:45-11:15 Break

11:15-12:30

Session one

Northampton Suite A & B

Literary Journalism

Chair: Julie Wheelwright

Julie Wheelwright, Senior Lecturer at Department of English, City University of London on Ethics and Literary Journalism.

Veronica Lopez, Journalist from Chile, Magazine production under Dictatorship

Susan Greenberg, the University of Roehampton, founding member of the International Association of Literary Journalism (IALJS) on “Objectivity is not the enemy, and literary journalism shows why”.

Session two

Northampton Suite C

Teaching Future Journalists: are we doing it right?

Richard Evans, Senior Lecturer at the Department of Journalism City University London in conversation with Julia Eugenia Martínez Journalist and Lecturer at School of Mass Communication at the Catholic University of Chile. Former President of AMMPE.

12:30-13:30 Lunch
University Canteen is suited on the first at floor of University Building (B)
Approximate hot food lunch costs £5

13:30-14:45
Session one
Northampton Suite A & B
Women in News
Chair: Professor Jane Martinson, Dept of Journalism, City University of London. Former Women’s editor at the Guardian.
Lindsey Blumell, Lecturer in Journalism, City University of London.
Lis Howell, Professor of Journalism at Department of Journalism, City University of London
Carly Watson, ITN News editor.
Kate Kinninmont MBE, Chief Executive, Women in Film & Television (UK)

Session two
Northampton Suite C
Participatory Journalism and Factual Storytelling
Chair: Jane Singer, Professor of Journalism at Department of Journalism, City, University of London on Journalism innovation
Tom Felle, Senior Lecturer at Department of Journalism, City, University of London on a new application City is putting together to help journalists fact check news stories using their mobile devices (project funded by google digital news initiative).
Professor Yu-li Liu, College of Communications National Chengchi University, Taiwan on Live Streaming
Caroline Bannock, Guardian’s editor for Community and UGC, overseeing Participatory Journalism, and Comments.
14:45-15:15 Break

15:15- 16:45
Session one
Northampton Suite A & B
Reporting the Middle East: the other stories
Chair: Zahera Harb, Senior Lecturer at Department of Journalism, City, University of London, Former Journalist from the Lebanon

Rima Maktabi, London Bureau Chief of Al Arabiya pan Arab TV channel, former CNN’s Inside the Middle East presenter.

Banu Güven, Turkish TV journalist and columnist.

Dina Matar, Head of Media department at SOAS, University of London, former Journalist in the Middle East.

Saoussen Ben Cheikh, Internews, Country Manager, Tunisia.

Session Two

OTLT

GAMAG Europe sponsored session

Challenges to media pluralism in Europe: Violence against women online

Jennifer Adams, Media Freedom Project Officer, OSCE Office of the Representative on Freedom Media

Javier Luque, IPI Head of Digital Communicationsnal -tbc-

Arzu Gelbuyayeva, Freelance journalist

Anna-Klara Bratt, founder and editor-in-chief of Feminist Perspective.

17:00-17:10

OTLT

Session sponsored by the Taiwan Embassy

Screening short films featuring Michelle Bachelet, twice President of Chile and Tsai Ing-wen, first female President in Taiwan

17:15- 19:00 Reception