

Brunello Rosa is director of Western Europe, G10 rates and currencies at Roubini Global Economics. Brunello joined RGE from the Bank of England, where he worked in the Markets area and market intelligence programme. Previously, he worked as a macroeconomist and fixed income strategist at IDEAglobal, a market intelligence company, and as a research assistant at the Financial Markets Group of the London School of Economics, from where he holds a master's degree in Finance and Economics.

Dr Ann Pettifor is a Director of Policy Research in Macroeconomics (PRIME), Honorary Research Fellow at CITYPERC, Executive Director of Advocacy International, and a fellow of the New Economics Foundation. With a background in sovereign debt and numerous books, articles and media appearances to her name, Ann is best known for correctly predicting the Global Financial Crises since as early as 2003. She was one of the leaders in the Jubilee 2000 debt campaign, and also served on the board of the UN's Human Development Report on the MDGs (2003) and as a member of the high level group of the Helsinki Process.

Dr Geoff Tily is Senior Economist at TUC and Honorary Research Fellow at CITYPERC. He has been a member of the Government Statistical Service since 1989 and the Government Economics Service since 2006. His MSc was in Economics at University College London and he did a PhD under the supervision of Victoria Chick.

John Mills is founder, Chairman and majority shareholder of a global import-export and distribution company, John Mills Limited (JML). John has been Secretary of the Labour Euro-Safeguards Campaign since 1975 and of the Labour Economic Policy Group since 1985, and has also served as an elected member for Labour in Camden (1971–2006) and as Parliamentary candidate (twice in 1974 and for the European Parliament in 1979). He is Vice-Chairman of the Economic Research Council and Chairman of The People's Pledge campaign for a referendum on Britain's EU membership. He has published extensively on British and global economics.

Paul J. Davies is Wall Street Journal reporter writing about European financial companies for Heard on the Street, a WSJ financial analysis section. He previously spent 14 years at the Financial Times where he was Asia Finance Correspondent from Hong Kong. Before that, Paul worked in London as insurance correspondent and deputy capital markets editor, covering credit and securitization markets throughout the financial crisis.

Contact: Anastasia Nesvetailova (Anastasia.Nesvetailova.1@city.ac.uk)