-Employment law: employment contracts, dismissals, redundancy, other 'work' contracts.

-Property: with special focus on Intellectual Property law.

WHAT WILL I BE EXPECTED TO ACHIEVE?

On successful completion of this module, you will be expected to be able to:

Knowledge and understanding:

-Explain the basics of the English Legal system; including the distinction between civil and criminal liability in relation to business or commercial transactions.

-Demonstrate an understanding of the basic legal principles relating to contract and tort which form the basis of various types of business activity.

-Compare the legal models for the conduct of commercial and business activity.

Skills:

- Illustrate the application of general principles of law with reference to a given case study.

- Identify, assess and analyse legal problems which arise in a business context, provide solutions to those problems and communicate their answers effectively both orally and in writing.

- Develop and demonstrate the capacity for legal analysis, research and problem solving skills within the context of Business Law, including the ability to produce written advice and to work in small groups.

- State, describe and distinguish between, the different sources of English law and to illustrate their practical application in the business and social environment.

- Argue both sides of a case and draw conclusions employing effective inter-personal and communication skills.

- Apply theory to practice.

Values and attitudes:

- Recognise the case for legal reform together with the case for reform of ethics, attitudes and behaviours in business dealings, brought about by less formal influences.
