PROGRAMME SUMMARY

Aims

The programme aims to enable you to:

- 1) Obtain a high quality, challenging education, both in International Politics and in Sociology, that focuses on the extent to which there are global social and political systems, on aspects of contemporary society at the country level, and on the relationships between the two levels.
 - 2) Understand political globalisation, through the development of transnational and transgovernmental relations, and the way these relations are structured through international organisations.
 - 3) Understand the character of sociology as a discipline that is both theoretically informed and evidence based
 - 4) Develop a critical awareness of a variety of sociological and political science perspectives and their relevance to other areas of study
 - 5) Study an up-to-date curriculum reflecting rapid social and political change in the contemporary world.
 - 6) Collect and analyse a range of social or political data through your own research
 - 7) Demonstrate an ability to comprehend, interpret and apply a range of materials, including original texts, archive material, data sets, interview materials, to produce coherent, well-structured written work
 - 8) Acquire the disciplinary and transferable skills, knowledge, study habits and independence of thought required of graduates in sociology and international politics
 - 9) Develop analytical capacities and the ability to examine and critically assess complex issues and debates.
- Programme Stage One: Following successful completion of the first year or the Certificate of Higher Education in International Politics and Sociology, you will be able to discuss underlying concepts and principles associated with the study of international politics and interpret these within the context of your practice.
 - Programme Stage Two: When you have successfully completed the second year or the Diploma of Higher Education in International Politics you will have built on your previous knowledge and experience. You will have developed skills of enquiry in your subject and different approaches to problem-solving, you will also be able to identify the limitations of your knowledge.

- Programme Stage Three: Following successful completion of the third year or the degree you will have a coherent, systematic and detailed knowledge of the study of international politics. You will be able to develop techniques for practice drawing on research and scholarship demonstrating your role as a reflective practitioner.

WHAT WILL I BE EXPECTED TO ACHIEVE?

On successful completion of this programme, you will be expected to be able to:

Knowledge and understanding:

- Apply key concepts and theoretical approaches within International Politics and Sociology and evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of these approaches in a wide range of different contexts (PIR-B1.1 and S-B1.1 key concepts and theoretical approaches).
- Analyse how political actors mobilise support for their positions on global issues (PIR-B1.2 the vocabulary of political debate; political systems and behaviour)
- Analyse the changing role of culture in social life and the diverse ways in which it may be articulated with other social, economic and political relationships (PIR-B1.2 political systems and behaviour; S-B1.3 comparative analysis)
- Analyse the different ways in which global social and political relationships affect, and are affected by, local and global cultural and political differences (PIR-B1.2 political change; S-B1.5 social change).
- Understand the different ways in which patterns of inequality, social diversity, value systems, identity and political conflict, cut across and inter-relate with each other in different social and political situations (PIR- B1.2 political systems and behaviour; S-B1.2 social diversity and inequality; S-B1.5 social change).
- Understand how different theoretical positions in International Politics and Sociology tend to be associated with different substantive concepts, methodological positions, research strategies and research methods (PIR-B1.3 theories, concepts and methods; S-B1.1 key concepts; S-B1.6 research strategies; and S-B1.7 arguments and evidence).
- Evaluate the relation between evidence and theory in a wide range of different contexts (PIR-B1.4 evaluate interpretations; S-B1.7 arguments and evidence).

Skills:

- Distinguish empirical, normative and explanatory statements from each other, in writing on and discussion of international politics.
- Understand current issues in political and social life and evaluate different approaches to them (PIR-B2.1 identify issues; PIR-B2.2 analyse problems; S-B2.1 assess explanations).
- Read and describe accurately complex written materials.
- Analyse and interpret critically different kinds of research evidence (PIR-B2.1 deploy evidence; S-B2.3 evaluate evidence).
- Communicate clearly in writing and in presentations. (PIR-B3.1 communicate effectively)
- Define abstract concepts, used in the analysis of international politics, and utilise them with rigour and consistency.

- Challenge received explanations of topics and controversies in social and political life (PIR-B2.3 exercise critical judgement; S-B2.1 assess explanations, S-B2.3 evaluate evidence; PIR-B2.3 and S-B2.4 develop reasoned argument).
- Read political documents and use other sources of information, to interpret the intentions of political actors, the targets of their actions and the possible responses they will receive.
- Study and reflect on ideas independently. (PIR-B3.3 work independently)
- Gather, retrieve and synthesise information from a number of different sources in order to understand the complexities of issues in social and political life (PIR-B2.1 and S-B2.2 collect information).
- Assess the value and relevance of the ideas of others. Evaluate complex arguments and the extent of their factual support.(PIR-B3.4 collaborate with others)
- Place individual political events in the wider context of processes of political change.
- Make reasoned judgements (PIR-B2.3 and S-B2.4 develop reasoned argument).
- Use the Internet to obtain information (PIR-B3.2 use IT)
- Understand and utilise, at a basic level, a range of research methods such as discourse analysis, participant observation, questionnaires and interviews (S-B3.3 use different methods; S-B3.4 investigate sociological questions).
- Use and apply numerical and quantitative skills.
- Reflect on your own learning and make use of constructive feedback (PIR-B2.4)
- Present, analyse and criticise research findings in a wide variety of different contexts (S-B3.2 report empirical findings).
- Gather appropriate information to answer Sociological questions (S-B3.1 understand sociological questions; S-B3.3 use different methods; S-B3.4 investigate sociological questions).
- Manage your own learning self-critically (PIR-B2.5)
- Undertake and present sociological research in a preliminary way (S-B3.5 identify ethical issues in research; S-B 3.6 undertake scholarly work).

Values and attitudes:

- Understand, respect and engage with those who do not share your own political values.
- Produce written materials that indicate in a precise and honest manner what is your own work and what is attributable to others.

This programme has been developed in accordance with the QAA Subject Benchmark for Politics and International Relations.

HOW WILL I LEARN?

The educational aims are achieved through a combination of lectures, interactive sessions, practical workshops and small group classes, supported by a personal tutorial system. Lectures are used to provide commentary on and explanation of key content areas. Small group classes are used to develop understanding by inviting students to raise questions and participate in the debate and by providing guidance for further study.

You are required to undertake extensive reading and independent study in order to understand the topics covered in lectures and classes and to broaden and deepen your knowledge.

For the third year project, you will receive supervision and the opportunity to develop research methods and writing skills.

WHAT TYPES OF ASSESSMENT AND FEEDBACK CAN I EXPECT?

Assessment and Assessment Criteria

Assessment is primarily in the form of coursework (assessed essays and assignments), unseen examinations and the final year project.

For the third year project, you will receive supervision and the opportunity to develop research methods and writing skills.

Assessment Criteria are descriptions, based on the intended learning outcomes, of the skills, knowledge or attitudes that you need to demonstrate in order to complete an assessment successfully, providing a mechanism by which the quality of an assessment can be measured. Grade- Related Criteria are descriptions of the level of skills, knowledge or attributes that you need to demonstrate in order achieve a certain grade or mark in an assessment, providing a mechanism by which the quality of an assessment can be measured and placed within the overall set of marks. Assessment Criteria and Grade-Related Criteria will be made available to you to support you in completing assessments. These may be provided in programme handbooks, module specifications, on the virtual learning environment or attached to a specific assessment task.

Feedback on assessment

Feedback will be provided in line with our Assessment and Feedback Policy. In particular, you will normally be provided with feedback within three weeks of the submission deadline or assessment date. This would normally include a provisional grade or mark. For end of module examinations or an equivalent significant task (e.g. an end of module project), feedback will normally be provided within four weeks. The timescale for feedback on final year projects or dissertations may be longer. The full policy can be found at:

https://www.city.ac.uk/_data/assets/pdf_file/0009/452565/Assessment-and-Feedback-Policy...pdf

Assessment Regulations

In order to pass your Programme, you should complete successfully or be exempted from the relevant modules and assessments and will therefore acquire the required number of credits. You also need to pass each Programme Stage of your Programme in order to progress to the following Programme Stage.

The Pass mark for each module is 40%.

If you fail an assessment component or a module, the following will apply:

1. Compensation: where you fail up to 30 credits or one sixth of the total credits within a Programme Stage, whichever is greater, you may be allowed compensation if:

- Compensation is permitted for the module involved (see the What will I Study section of the programme specification), and
- It can be demonstrated that you have satisfied all the Learning Outcomes of the modules in the Programme Stage, and
- A minimum overall mark of no more than 10% below the module pass mark has been achieved in the module to be compensated, and
- An aggregate mark of 40% has been achieved for the Programme Stage, and
- The total volume of credits compensated over the entire degree does not exceed 45 credits.

Where you are eligible for compensation at the first attempt, this will be applied in the first instance rather than offering a resit opportunity.

If you receive a compensated pass in a module you will be awarded the credit for that module. The original component marks will be retained in the record of marks and your original module mark will be used for the purpose of your Award calculation.

2. Resit: where you are not eligible for compensation at the first attempt, you will be offered one resit attempt.

If you are successful in the resit, you will be awarded the credit for that module. The mark for each assessment component that is subject to a resit will be capped at the pass mark for the module. This capped mark will be used in the calculation of the final module mark together with the original marks for the components that you passed at first attempt.

If you do not meet the pass requirements for a module and do not complete your resit by the date specified you will not progress to the next Programme Stage and the Assessment Board will require you to be withdrawn from the Programme.

If you fail to meet the requirements for a particular Programme Stage or the Programme, the Assessment Board will consider whether you are eligible for an Exit Award as per the table below.

If you would like to know more about the way in which assessment works at City, please see the full version of the Assessment Regulations at:

TO WHAT KIND OF CAREER MIGHT I GO ON?

If you would like more information on the Careers support available at City, please go to: <http://www.city.ac.uk/careers/for-students-and-recent-graduates>.

WHAT STUDY ABROAD OPTIONS ARE AVAILABLE?

As an Undergraduate student you can undertake a period of study abroad whilst completing the programme. This is possible through the SASS Exchange Programme, a year of study at one of our European and/or international partner universities via a sandwich year, which is undertaken between completing Programme Stage 2 and entering Programme Stage 3, extending the degree to four years.

The resulting degree title awarded would be: BSc International Politics and Sociology with Study Abroad.

Participation in the SASS Exchange Programme is through an application process. You are encouraged to investigate the opportunities available to you within your Department in your first year at City.

Information and support for this programme is provided by the SASS Exchanges Team (SASS.Exchanges@city.ac.uk).

WHAT PLACEMENT OPPORTUNITIES ARE AVAILABLE?

As an Undergraduate student you can undertake a one year work placement whilst completing the programme. This is possible through joining the Integrated Professional Training Programme, which is a sandwich year that is taken between completing Programme Stage 2 and entering Programme Stage 3, extending the degree to four years.

The resulting degree title awarded would be: BSc International Politics and Sociology with Integrated Professional Training.

In identifying relevant placement opportunities you should consider your long-term plans for employment; whether the work placement proposed is relevant to final year modules; whether it might provide experience on which a project could be based.

Information and support for this programme is provided by the SASS Placements Team (SASS.Placements@city.ac.uk).

1) You should discuss your plans with the relevant Department Placement Officer at the earliest opportunity, preferably during the autumn term of their second year.

2) The work placement must extend over a minimum of 9 months and a maximum of 12 months (including holidays allowed by the employing body). The Placement should normally run between the 1st September and the 31st August in the following year.

3) The placement must be approved by City as providing suitable supervision and training.

4) Participant students are required to pay an administrative charge to cover the School's costs associated with the work placement. This will be in the form of a reduced tuition fee for the placement year, which will cover continued enrolment with City and access to all of its facilities.

HOW DO I ENTER THE PROGRAMME?

Entry Requirements

- 'A' Level: Grades BBB or 120 UCAS tariff points. A-Level General Studies and A Level Critical Studies are not accepted
- GCSE: Minimum Grade 4 (C) in GCSE English and Mathematics or Statistics.
- IB: 30 points including 5,5,5 from three Higher Level subjects (no specific subjects required).

Other UK qualifications:

- BTEC National Diploma (DDM required)
- Cambridge Pre-U Principal Subjects
- Advanced Diploma (plus appropriate A Levels)
- Scottish Advanced Highers
- Welsh Diploma (plus appropriate A Levels)

International Qualifications

We accept a wide range of international qualifications for direct entry to our programmes.

English Language Requirements

- IELTS 6.5 overall with a minimum of 6.0 in each component
- PTE Academic: 58 overall with a minimum of 51 in each component

Second-year transfers

We accept students transferring from other universities for second year entry on a case-by case basis. If you wish to apply for second-year entry please be aware that you must:

- Currently be studying on a course in an equivalent subject area.
- Have achieved grades equal to the entry requirements for first-year entry (A Levels, international qualifications, foundation years, access courses, etc).
- Have covered sufficiently similar content to that of our first year students.
- Be gaining or have gained at least a 2:1 in every module in your current first year. You must provide official documentation of this as evidence (e.g. university transcript).

If you feel you meet these requirements then please apply through UCAS as early as possible (transfer students normally apply when their first semester exam results are published) and we can then assess your eligibility. Please be aware you will need to select your 'point of entry' as year two.

Please note: For direct second-year entrants the overall degree classification will be based on the marks obtained at City, University of London only, with the weighting of 33/67 between the second and third year. Marks previously obtained will not be used in the degree classification.
