My Olympic summer

Bonnie Price

I was already involved in volunteering through the Sports Maker and City of London Academy Islington, where the students were performing in their opening or closing ceremony and why? What was your best moment? What or who inspired you the most? I was already involved in volunteering through the Sports Maker and City of London Academy Islington, where the students were performing in their Opening or Closing ceremony and why? What was your best moment? What or who inspired you the most?

New sport development

American football

Today’s a week’s work for the sports teams who have been working on improving their scientific and technical skills. Students are making the most of the facilities available, with 200 students taking part in the annual conference and training programme. IntraCity kicks off for a new term

City Sport

Representative sports results

See how much City’s teams are performing in their respective leagues.

IntraCity kick off for a new term

IntraCity

The newly formed IntraCity kick off for a new term, and we’re ready to step up’. What’s new and different about this term? The focus is on getting more students to try out new sports and to encourage participation in sport. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities within your own and other halls of residence. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities, providing an opportunity to participate in sport and leisure activities:

Latest news

Sports trials

The sports programme is designed to encourage students to take part in a variety of activities, including sport, physical education, and recreation. It is open to all students and is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. It is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

Scores and results

IntraCity and City University London Sports Association have joined forces to create a new team, the City University London Intramural Sports League (CULS). The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

For further information about any of these teams, send us a message. The fee for joining is £10 per term, and the fees are payable at the beginning of each term. We’re looking forward to your participation in sport and leisure activities.

IntraCity offers all students the opportunity to participate in sport, leisure, or academic activities that are available at City University London. The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

City Sport

Brand new sport development

American football

Today’s a week’s work for the sports teams who have been working on improving their scientific and technical skills. Students are making the most of the facilities available, with 200 students taking part in the annual conference and training programme.

What’s new and different about this term? The focus is on getting more students to try out new sports and to encourage participation in sport. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities within your own and other halls of residence. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities, providing an opportunity to participate in sport and leisure activities.

We’re looking forward to your participation in sport and leisure activities.

Sports trials

The sports programme is designed to encourage students to take part in a variety of activities, including sport, physical education, and recreation. It is open to all students and is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. It is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

Scores and results

IntraCity and City University London Sports Association have joined forces to create a new team, the City University London Intramural Sports League (CULS). The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

For further information about any of these teams, send us a message. The fee for joining is £10 per term, and the fees are payable at the beginning of each term. We’re looking forward to your participation in sport and leisure activities.

IntraCity offers all students the opportunity to participate in sport, leisure, or academic activities that are available at City University London. The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

City Sport

Brand new sport development

American football

Today’s a week’s work for the sports teams who have been working on improving their scientific and technical skills. Students are making the most of the facilities available, with 200 students taking part in the annual conference and training programme.

What’s new and different about this term? The focus is on getting more students to try out new sports and to encourage participation in sport. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities within your own and other halls of residence. It is designed to help develop students of all abilities, providing an opportunity to participate in sport and leisure activities.

We’re looking forward to your participation in sport and leisure activities.

Sports trials

The sports programme is designed to encourage students to take part in a variety of activities, including sport, physical education, and recreation. It is open to all students and is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. It is ideal for individuals who wish to learn or improve their skills. The programme does not have a competitive edge. It is aimed at providing an opportunity for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.

Scores and results

IntraCity and City University London Sports Association have joined forces to create a new team, the City University London Intramural Sports League (CULS). The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities. The league offers a range of high-quality sport for all students, and aims to create a supportive environment for students to enjoy sport and leisure activities.