A Beginner’s Guide to searching CityLibrary Search for E-Journals

- Go to CityLibrary Search: http://www.city.ac.uk/library
- Enter the journal title. For this example, we will search for Journal of Applied Corporate Finance.
- You can search for electronic and print journals.

!Journal search on CityLibrary Search

Figure 1 – Journal search on CityLibrary Search

- The results page shows if we subscribe to the title:

!CityLibrary Search results screen

Figure 2 - Example of CityLibrary Search results screen

- To see where online access is available from and the years available, select Full Text Online. You can also see the years available in print by selecting Check Availability.

!Full Text Online and Check Availability

Figure 3 – Example of CityLibrary Search results screen
The results screen shows what online access is available.

To access the e-journal, select the provider that covers the year you want by selecting Journal

For example, if you wanted an article from 2012, you would select Journal next to Wiley-Blackwell Journals (Frontfile Content).

!Select Journal

Figure 4 – Select Journal

Now enter your IT username and password.

!E journals log-in screen

Figure 5 - E journals log-in screen

Further Help

If you need help and support using the databases please contact:

- Electronic Resources Manager (Postgraduates)
  Suzanne Griffiths suzanne.griffiths.1@city.ac.uk

- Business Subject Librarian (Undergraduates)
  Samantha Halford samantha.halford.1@city.ac.uk

- Research Support Librarian (PhD)
  Rowena Macrae-Gibson rowena.macrae-gibson.1@city.ac.uk