Constitution

of

City University Students’ Union

BACKGROUND

A. City University Students’ Union known as City University London Students’ Union (the “Union”) is a students’ union within the meaning of the Education Act 1994. The Union is devoted to the educational interests and welfare of its Members.

B. The Union will seek at all times to:

   (i) ensure that the diversity of its membership is recognised and that equal access is available to all Members of whatever origin or orientation;

   (ii) pursue its aims and objectives independent of any political party or religious group; and

   (iii) pursue equal opportunities by taking positive action within the law to facilitate participation of groups discriminated against by society.

C. This Constitution has been structured to give the Board of Trustees reasonable authority to manage the affairs of the Union in a professional manner. The Members enjoy the right, which must be exercised in accordance with charity law, to elect a proportion of the Trustees. The Board of Trustees will give the utmost consideration to the views of Members.

D. Under the Education Act 1994, City University has a statutory duty to ensure that the Union operates in a fair and democratic manner and is held to proper account for its finances. The Union therefore works alongside City University in ensuring that the affairs of the Union are properly conducted and that the educational and welfare needs of the Union’s Members are met. City University provides the core funding for the Union and establishes a Financial Memorandum, which must be adhered to by the Union in return for this funding. The Financial Memorandum restricts the exercise of some of the powers given to the Union under this Constitution.

36. The Officer Trustees shall remain in office for a term of one year commencing in accordance with the Regulations. The term of office may be shorter or longer on a transitional basis to coincide with an alteration of the year start or end. 50.7 he or she is removed from office under Clauses 51 to 53.

Removal of Trustees by the Board

51. The office of a Trustee shall be vacated if a 66% majority resolution of no confidence is passed by the Trustees. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trustee concerned and any Trustee who has a conflict of interest in relation to the matter shall not vote on this resolution and the quorum shall be adjusted accordingly in accordance with Clause 82. The Board will only decide whether to make this decision in respect of an Officer or Student Trustee if the Union Council has requested the Trustees to do so by a 66% majority vote in accordance with the Regulations.

Rights of Removed Trustee

52. A resolution to remove a Trustee in accordance with Clause 51 shall not be passed unless the Trustee concerned has been given at least 14 clear days’ notice in writing that the resolution is to be proposed, specifying the circumstances alleged to justify removal from office, and has been afforded a reasonable opportunity of being heard by or making written representations to the Trustees.
53. A Trustee removed from office in accordance with Clause 51 shall be entitled to appeal the decision to remove him or her to an Appeals Panel within 14 days of the resolution. A meeting of the Trustees at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the Trustees.

59. No alteration of this Constitution or the Regulations shall invalidate any prior act of the Trustees which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made.

60. The Board’s powers under Clause 58 shall include but not be limited to responsibility for:

61.4 will or may otherwise affect the discharge of any or all of the responsibilities referred to in Clause 60.

62. The continuing Trustees or a sole continuing Trustee may act notwithstanding any vacancies in their number. However, if and so long as the number of Trustees is less than the number fixed as the quorum in Clause 82, the Trustees may only act to increase the number of Trustees (including by arranging an election) so that there is a quorum.

63. All acts done by a meeting of Trustees, or of a committee of the Trustees, shall be valid, even if it is later discovered that any Trustee who participated in the vote:

66.1 the resolution making that delegation shall specify those who shall serve or be asked to serve on such committee (though the resolution may allow the committee to make co-options up to a specified number);

66.2 subject to Clause 69, the composition of any such committee shall be entirely in the discretion of the Trustees and may comprise such of their number (if any) as the resolution may specify;

66.3 the deliberations of any such committee shall be reported regularly to the Trustees and any resolution passed or decision taken by any such committee shall be reported forthwith to the Trustees and for that purpose every committee shall appoint a secretary;
all delegations under this Clause shall be revocable at any time; and the Trustees may make such regulations and impose such terms and conditions and give such mandates to any such committee or committees as they may from time to
