Studying LLB Law at City

This Online Chat session is for prospective students interested in studying our LLB Law course. The session will be run by current students, giving you the opportunity to ask questions about your chosen course and life at City, University of London. As this is a typed chat group session, you will be able to see the answers to questions asked by other applicants.

Thank you for joining us for today’s Online Chat sessions. This session is for students interested in City’s LLB course. This session runs from 14:00 - 15:00 (GMT). This is an open chat session for you to ask any questions you have regarding these courses and life at City, University of London. During the session you may also share videos, polls or documents relating to your course.

To ask a question, please type it in the chat box. Your question will not post straight away - it will be sent to our Moderators who will type an answer back. Once their answer is complete, it will be published with your question.

Hi, I am Maria, I am a Greek student and I am very interested in studying law at City university. One of the questions I would like to ask is what grades should I have to apply and be accepted. ... and will the acceptance system change after Brexit?

Hi Maria! I am Maira and I am an European student just like you. The entry requirements for the Greek Apolytirion would be one 18 AP plus 2 A Levels grades BB or 19 AP plus 1 A Level grade B. The acceptance system would not change after Brexit, what might change in the next few years are the university fees and immigration requirements as well but that depends on the future relations with Europe so at the moment I don’t have a certain answer to your question.
Hi, would I be able to specialise in one specific area of law?

Hi Lesley-Anne, thanks for the question. There are plenty of opportunities to specialise in the second half of the LLB. After covering the foundations of legal knowledge in year 1 and the first term of year 2, you are free to choose from a wide array of optional electives to suit your personal interests. For instance, I teach the competition law course. You can also show your specialism in your degree by graduating with a named pathway, such as LLB Law with Human Rights, with Commercial Law, and a few others.

Thank you for your reply. I took part in an exhibition regarding British universities and I remember being told that A levels are not necessarily needed, due to the fact that I go to a Greek school, as long as I had an IELTS degree over 6.5 is that true?

Dear Maria, English A Levels are not needed as you go to a Greek school so what is required is the equivalent of A levels. You can find all of the entry requirements for the LLB on this website https://www.city.ac.uk/__data/assets/pdf_file/0003/293416/Law-Entry-Requirements.pdf And yes, you are right about IELTS as you study in an English non-speaking country you will be required to take the IELTS Certificate and receive an overall mark of 6.5 or over.
If you would like to chat with any of our student ambassadors, you can do so via our new peer-to-peer platform! Please visit www.city.ac.uk/ask-a-student to start chatting to our students now.

Ask a student

Speak with one of our current students and find out more about what it is like to study at City.
This session has now ended. Thank you so much for joining us today. If you have any further questions, please email onlineevents@city.ac.uk.