City, University of London is offering tuition fee and maintenance support to up to three undergraduate students who are asylum seekers or hold Limited Leave to Remain.

Successful applicants will be awarded a full tuition fee waiver and maintenance support to the value of £12,102 (including living and study costs). The non-repayable maintenance bursary will include £1,400, the equivalent of the City, University of London Scholarship, and the equivalent of the student loan given to students studying at City (£10,702).

Funding will be provided for the normal duration of your course. If you need to apply for extra funding, e.g. for a course change or repeat year, your individual circumstances will be examined by the panel and a decision will be communicated to you.

Eligibility

To be considered for our Article 26 Scholarship you must:

- Be an asylum seeker, the child of an asylum seeker or hold Limited Leave to Remain;
- Be ineligible to obtain funding from the Student Loan Company or your local authority;
- Not already hold a Higher Education qualification or equivalent.
- Have either an unconditional or conditional offer from City, University of London

Required Documentation

- Visa Status Documentation (Please submit a copy of your visa status documents)
- Proof of current residency (e.g. bank statement, utility bill, tenancy agreement)
- Proof of date of entry to the United Kingdom (e.g. passport stamp, letter from UKVI)

These documents may need to be obtained from your immigration solicitor.
