

University and Students' Union Responses to BIS Green Paper Consultation

Summary

Attached online as papers 4b i and 4b ii are the University and Students' Union responses to the BIS Green Paper "Fulfilling our potential: teaching excellence, social mobility and student choice" published before Christmas and submitted in the consultation period which ran until 15th January 2016.

The University consultation response was submitted following consultation, primarily with senior management and University Senate. This response sets out the University feedback in relation to a number of proposals including a potential Teaching Excellence Framework, establishment of the Office for Students and a single gateway for entry to the HE sector.
