

Feminist Publishing: Practices, Processes, and Contemporary Challenges

Friday 10th March 1-7pm, City University of London

This half-day conference aims to demystify academic publishing processes in a supportive, non-competitive environment. With a focus on feminist and gender/sexualities research, the event draws from industry and academic expertise across the areas of book publishing, journals, open access, and grassroots feminist publishing. Workshops will cover: book formats and proposal submissions; industry models; peer review processes and alternative models.

Representatives: Manchester University Press, Silver Press, Pluto Press, Feminist Theory Journal, Feminist Review Journal, and Goldsmiths University Press.

Speakers: Professor Catherine Rottenberg (Nottingham), Dr Asiya Islam (Leeds), Dr Kyoung Kim (SOAS), Dr Kavita Maya (RHUL), Professor Sarah Kember (Goldsmiths), Dr Edna Bonhomme (Silver Press), Shannon Kneis (Manchester University Press), Dr Emily Cousens (LSE), Neda Tehrani (Pluto Press), Rebekka Kiesewetter (Coventry). Keynote talk: Professor Lynne Segal (Birkbeck)

Hosted by City's Gender and Sexualities Research Centre & co-organised with Manchester University Press
